The Youth's Companion as a Gift.

What other Christmas present can you choose that will give so much pleasure for so little money as a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion? The Holiday Numbers and the Calendar, joyously welcomed on Christmas morning, making a good gift in themselves, are but the forerunners of a whole year's feast to come. The mind is entertained with the numbers in hand, and the imagination revels in the pleasure that each new week will bring until Christmas comes again.

If you desire to make a Christmas present of The Youth's Companion, send the publishers the name and address of the person to whom you wish to give The Companion, with $1.75, the annual subscription price, stating that it is to be a gift. The publishers will then send to the address named, in a parcel to be opened Christmas morning, all the remaining issues for 1904, published after the subscription is received, including the Double Holiday Numbers, The Companion's "Carnations" Calendar for 1905, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of 1905.

Full Illustrated Announcement, fully describing the principal features of The Companion's new volume for 1905, will be sent free to any address. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley Street, Boston, Mass.

The Beer Bell. In 1150 the French government made regulations for the inns. Only non-residents were allowed to be lodged, and no wine or beer was to be sold after the angelus, which thus acquired the odd cognomen of the "beer bell."

Coal Dust Bricks. Bricks made of coal dust are used for paving in Russia. The coal dust is combined with molasses and resin.

Chemical Productions. It is estimated that our manufacturers turn out over $104,000,000 of what might be termed "chemical productions" in a year's time.

Fancy Lights For Mountain Trains. Locomotives on the Denver and Rio Grande are to be fitted with adjustable electric flashlights by which trains approaching each other on curves in the mountain may give warning by throwing rays into the air, says a Denver dispatch. The lights will be red.

WILLIAMSTOWN. Next Friday, Nov. 11, the ladies of the Universalist society will hold their annual chicken pie supper and sale at the town hall. Supper will be served from 5 to 7:30, followed by an entertainment. The usual price of admission will be charged and all are cordially invited.

Farmers Take Notice! We have just received a car of fancy mixed feed. Our price is $25.00 per ton at the car. This is a very low price for this quality of feed. I. H. Perry, 23 So. Main street.

WORTH A THOUGHT.

This Statement Will Interest Scores of Barre Readers.

The facts given below are worth a perusal by all who are anxious about their physical condition or are similarly situated to this resident of Orange. It is a local occurrence and can be thoroughly investigated.

Mrs. A. M. Andrews (A. M. Andrews, farmer), residence, Orange, says: "Some two years ago I first noticed pain in my back and hips and as the weeks and months went by it became more severe and was of much longer duration. Finally too frequent action of the kidney secretions was added to the backache, and as they were often distressing and annoying health ran down and it was impossible for me to do the slightest housework with any degree of pleasure. If I was on my feet for any length of time I was taken with dizziness and blurring before my eyes and I often became so weak and nervous that I almost fell. A lady friend in Barre recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and my husband went to E. A. Drown's for the first box. I cannot positively state that the remedy has actually rid me of the cause of the backache and other complications due to kidney complaint, but I must conscientiously say that from the benefit received I have the greatest confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills and believe that what is said about them is not misrepresentation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
